

The legend tells of one poor girl who wanted a gift to bring which she could lay in front of church, in honor of our king. She picked a small bouquet of weeds. It was all she had to give. She prayed that it was good enough. She prayed the flowers would live. And as she placed them in the church for everyone to see, the blossoms turned to brighter red, as lovely as could be.

Dear Jesus, I've a gift to bring to lay before your throne. It is my small and humble heart. Please use it for your own. I pray that you will bless my gift so that it grows to be a place wherein Your love can bloom for all the world to see.
